

Documenting the Actions of “R” Regarding the Cat

16.01.2026

Hi, so in this document you are about to read will include most of the wrong doings, arguments and "R" being a prick and an idiot towards me, mom, Fafa and the Cat.

On the day before our move (from Stovner back to Lindeberg), I was home alone with my mother packing our belongings. We were putting items into boxes and loading them into a van. While we were working inside the house, (1 september 2025) our neighbor's cat came in. The cat went upstairs and walked through multiple rooms. I took several videos of the cat and sent them to our family group chat. This moment stands out clearly in my memory. During this time, I asked my mother if I could bring a cat when we moved to the new house. She said yes. I remember this conversation very clearly, as it was an important agreement about getting a pet in our new home.

Before i continue to the new home part, i just wanted to let you know i ME AQ literally carried almost all of this dickheads stuff and clothes in these big as bags from the old house to the van and put them it in the storage room, to then us finding out we found a home (lindeberg) so we had to load all the stuff in the storage room back into the van. I carried these heavy boxes OF HER STUFF, THREE TIMES, (out the old house → into storage room → to new house) does she care? Did she show any support or try to help? well it's not a hard guess, nah she doesn't. At one point when it was starting to get late mom called "R" so she could take care of sarah, take her to bed because she had school tomorrow, but guess what "R" was doing when mom called, she was out with her friends, You literally cannot MAKE THIS SHIT UP imagine seeing your mom carry all these boxes and your out with friends??!!! not at all thinking "hmmm, maybe i should stay help mom, or take care of sarah (little sister) while mom and AQ pack" no as normal this bitch does not give a fuck. and this type of behavior keep happening.

another incident that happen, when all stuff was relocated to the new house it was a total mess, my stepdad (fafa) called i showed him around, boxes everywhere inside and outside, like 2-3 days later he showed up to help (i am always grateful for that) and at one day i rented a van, me and fafa drove all around got a bunch of ikea furniture and stuff plus carried a bunch of boxes in and out, while we was doing this guess what "R" was doing, she was out in the city center with sarah having fun and eating sushi, but that's fine what my point is. Is during dinner time when it was finished fafa asked whos turn to take the dishes, i said not me "R" said the same, and an argument started, i said you havent done shit she still didnt give a fuck. until fafa said the same, he said something like "Me and ariyen has been out all days doing these chores and you cant wash some dishes". yeah crazy how much "caring" "R" has.

After some months in the new house, everything was packed out rooms done etc. Me mom and the dickhead was in the kitchen and i said "am gonna bring a cat" the dickhead crashes out and said "no I AM" i said "tf i said it way before you when tf did u ask" as you know this bitch dont give a fuck she could be wrong and still argue. she still said am going to bring a cat, i literally said to mom do not let her bring a cat she cant even take care of her self she mentally fucking unstable, she goes out almost everyday to friends, look at here trashy room (it deadass is horrible) etc.

It came to the point where I said to mom you know what just dont let anybody bring a cat NO ONE, but as you know the dickhead dont even listen to mom and mom doesnt go hard on her cuz of her past actions (run away from home, tf she thinks this is. A Disney movie bruh) a couple days passed and she brought the cat. The cat went inside moms room and you know I wanted to see it . A couple minutes later this dickhead said "you're scared it got out" am like wtf. i go after a few minutes

A couple days go by, you know the hype of always getting something new. but after like a week the hypes die, the new becomes the normal and some weeks later the dickheads starts not giving a fuck about the cat. She even ended up going more out to a friend's house and sleeping there too, and guess who had to be the one who cleaned the litter box with poo. MOM. which she shouldn't even have DONE ONCE because "R" is the one WHO BROUGHT THE MF CAT. and while all of this stuff was going on i was literally dying. bro my nose was going crazy i was sneezing literally every second i LITERALLY could NOT sleep, i couldn't breath right. mom said it was some of your grass pollen allergies but go to the doctor and check. I went to the doctor for the blood test and waited. back at home mom continues to clean the po 7am in the morning because the house literally smelled like it. and not only that she started slacking on giving the damn cat clean water. She would leave the same water out for days. Hair and dust would be all over it. re filling the water which literally takes like 30 seconds or less to do and she couldn't even do that. She also never made a proper system for the cat you know a scheduled feeding time for wet food, playing with it and grooming it (you should have seen how much hair is coming off the cat, allat) still now as am writing this no scheduled, and this went on for months and is still going btw. yeah so after the hype completely died she would come home to greet the cat for like 2-3minutes and lock herself in her room for the rest of the day. and also as am writing this i remember there was this one night where she took the cat in her room closed the door and slept while the cat wanted out and was making these sounds on the door in the MIDDLE OF THE NIGHT, i literally woke up and opened the door so this cat could go out, she did this multiple times til i called her out on this, absolutely no common sense in that dumbass. she did this again but in the kitchen, i hear these sounds the cat makes when he is at the door and trying to get out, I thought she was in the dickheads room and i told my self nah i aint doing this this time, but some time past and i thought why tf isnt she opening the door, so i stood up opened the kitchen door and the cat ran out i didnt even know he was in there. then in the morning i called her out on this "why tf you leaving the cat in the kitchen with the door closed" do you know tf she said "I DID NOT" bruh mf bitch i literally SAW THIS, and this dickhead keep saying no.

yeah so it went like this for a while, but it was one night that was very bad, it was 2am i was in the bathroom when i hear these weird sound coming from the cat i open the door and i see this long plastic string inside his mount he was throwing it up and choking on it, i rushed to it and pulled it out. (this cat could have DIED) before that he also threw up, he threw up 3 times, Guess who had to clean that up. ME!.

Then 7 am hit and mom wakes up, imagine just wanting a normal morning to now you gotta deal with cat puke. and at last the dickhead wakes up, goes to the cat and just sits there with the cat on her phone. I took out the plastic string. I cleaned out the puke, I gave the cat fresh water and fresh air. Does she acknowledge this? NO absolutely not, i got mad and sent a text in the group chat, she answered with the pop emoji on my message.

a bit back after he puked at like 3am i played with the cat just messing around making him feel safe. he then went to go take a shit he came back i was playing with this guy until i notice mf poo on my finger, am like what the fuck is this i smelled it and was tf why there poo on my finger i rushed to the bathroom washed it off, the reason am telling you this is because earlier the day before mom said put some more cat litter in his box the dickhead said "ok" mom said "now" she said "am doing it later" guess what she never fucking did it, so this mf went into the litter box did his shit got it on his paw and walked around the house like that.

are you READING THIS, THIS IS FUCKING INSANE, THIS IS NOT FUCKING NORMAL ON GOD ITS NOT. THIS MF BITCH BRO am getting mad by fucking thinking about it about all the shit she done.

btw numerous times has she been told to return the cat back to its original owner, by me, mom and fafa. did she listen? you know the answer "NO" you know why mom hasnt done anything but only talking cuz if she did the dickhead would crash out. this person definitely is mentally stupid and retarded.

Fast forward to actually the day before I am writing this, it's 04:30am right now btw ive been up too long i can feel the tiredness, dont mind the grammar. anyway the day before on 15 january 2026, Lina came (big sister) from her studies in Hungary back here. Both came together at the same time."r" put the cat bag down opens it the cat goes out, she showers the cat because he peed inside his bag, i said leave the bag outside mom gonna be angry she said amma wash it then i started telling lina about all this stuff about the cat and how tf the dickhead be doing shit. and this bitch gets so mad and lying her ass off about how she be doing stuff right. Btw she washed the bag but left the bathroom smelling like pee and cat hair on the ground without even opening the window and washing the floor, guess who did it, MOM when she came home after a long day with sarah. Does the dickhead care? of course NOT i got hella mad, and btw i ended up being allergic to cats and everyone found out but the dickhead still not returned it, i even said "i take mf cat allergic medicine to fucking breath properly) btw my nose still be bad sometimes. it got to a point where i was very mad and tears started coming out my eye and I couldn't even pronounce words right it was weird cuz i wasnt even sad i wanted to fucking kill this bitch on god i woulda liked to see her DEAD. you know those moments where you get mad you start crying but your not sad just tears falling out the eye, i guess its just the body's response to how it is thinking it feeling. i really cant fucking belive am writing again about the bitch this is the 2nd time ive documented her doing stupid shit because no one ever belives me, they always believe the younger and the one crying. thats why i gotta write it down and show proof. here you can see some images of the stuff ive talked about. btw even tho am allergic ive played the most with this cat, sure ive annoyed it but nothing is as worse as the shit the dickhead did and is still doing it btw.

same father, same last name BUT NOT AND NEVER FAMILY.
